Brazos Valley Attorney Receives National Award
AOATL's 2019 "Top 100" Award

College Station, TX, August 5, 2019 – Channa Borman, of C.E. Borman & Associates, has received the 2019 “Top 100” Award by the Association of American Trial Lawyers in recognition of her outstanding legal representation in Texas Divorce and Family Law in the Brazos Valley.

Channa Borman has been practicing law in the Brazos Valley since 1994. “This nomination is humbling and gratifying,” said Borman.

AOATL’s mission is to recognize and identify outstanding lawyers across a range of legal fields in the country. Borman is the Principle of her own law firm, and a part-time professor at Blinn College in Bryan. She has received numerous leadership awards which includes being a three-time winner of the Brazos County Bar Association’s Pro Bono Service Award.

ABOUT AOATL “Top 100” AWARD

Each year, the Association of American Trial Lawyers “Top 100” award recognizes trial lawyers with a broad range of experience who are ranked the top lawyers in their respective field of practice and region. The selection process includes being nominated by peer endorsements and the membership committee. Honorees chosen are a diverse cross section of attorneys who have achieved a high level of accomplishment as well as maintain a strong reputation in the legal community.
